

PERRY COUNTY FAIR
ROYALTY COURT CODE OF CONDUCT

Congratulations! You have earned your spot on this year's Perry County Fair Royalty Court! As members of this court, you will be asked to read and understand these expectations of all royalty court members. Good Luck and Have Fun.

1. While in crown/hat and sash, there will be no public display of affection with significant others. This includes holding hands, kissing, etc. Temper tantrums, pouting spells, back talk and other forms of disagreeable behavior are also forbidden while in crown/hat and sash. Remember you are representing the Perry County Fair and the county's agricultural community. If you are being disagreeable, that is the impression people will get of our people and Fair. This could result in the loss of crown/hat and title.
2. Alcohol, drugs and tobacco products are forbidden to be engaged by King/Queen
3. "Civil Unrest" which includes fighting, picketing, suspension from school, shoplifting, domestic disturbance, and any other activity requiring the response of the police/sheriff departments are grounds for removal from the court.
4. Roughhousing, discriminatory or sexually subjected jokes, rude behavior and bullying of any kind is strictly forbidden.
5. Cursing and derogatory slang is also forbidden while in crown/hat and sash. Remember that small children are around at the Fairs, Festivals, and parades.
6. Participation during the fair and at special functions organized by the King/Queen, royalty committee, or Sr. Fair Board are expected. Lack of participation may be grounds for removal from the court.
7. Any infractions of this code will be discussed and documented. If infractions continue despite interventions, any royalty court member may relinquish their title at the discretion of the Sr. Fair Board
8. Title must be relinquished if the King or Queen is suspended or expelled from school/college. Traveling is not to interfere with academics.
9. There shall be no inappropriate photos or posting on social media. This includes photography of any royalty court member with or without crown and sash with any alcohol, drugs, or tobacco products in the photo. This includes blogs, My Space, Facebook, Twitter, Linked In, Instagram, Snapchat and any other similar sites. Do not post personal information on your exact travel plans due to safety concerns.
10. Any actions or statements that are detrimental to the Perry County Fair or affiliates will result in the loss of title.
11. Under no circumstances is negative talk about a member of royalty (past or present) or another candidate or his/her family member(s) tolerated. Slanderous & derogatory remarks or the spreading of rumors will result in the dismissal of a candidate and will not quality to enter the contest again.
